WALL STREET BLUES

By Mack Sennett ✓

Harry Cary, a broker, caught in a falling market is compelled to promise his daughter in marriage to Carl Kopeck, in order to save himself from financial ruin. Kopeck is aided by one who does the dirty work. The cashier in Cary's office, in love with Cary's daughter, cleverly schemes to save the girl as she is about to start on her honeymoon. A motorboat - an aeroplane and a mad flight to the steamer brings the cashier on board in time to foil the villain and rescue the girl.
